A FEW FACTS

Which I Submit to the Public for Decision.

For the purpose of withdrawing patronage from my store Mr. Davidson recently commenced a mean attack on me in the columns of the local papers, which I indignantly resented. When two persons fairly contradict each other the one or the other must be wrong. Let us see who did so in this instance:

Mr. Davidson wishes the public to believe that I have sent "all my intricate watchwork" to him personally. This is a gross misrepresentation of the facts, as I will show. I have employed Mr. W. Goeggele, who does his watchwork, to do my watchmaking—knowing when buying goods in San Francisco, on an other occasion when sick, and sometimes when overworked with work—but this was at times when the gentleman was working for Mr. Davidson on commission only, and therefore not strictly a clerk in his employ. Mr. D. received no benefit for any work as given out by me, and I hold and shall willingly exhibit to any one wishing to see them, the receipts signed by said workman, which Mr. Davidson's name is not even referred to—a most potent proof as to which of us lies. On examination of these receipts I find that I have paid Mr. Goeggele from February 19th, 1878, to January 14th, 1879, just $109 75, which represents only a small portion of my work during that time. Compare these figures with those of Mr. Davidson ($215 25) and see who lies. Again, the book in which Mr. Goeggele kept my account is his private property, and Mr. Davidson had no right whatever to examine it. As to my being neither watchmaker nor jeweler, I will leave that question to public judgment, although I may say I learned my trade in London, England, years ago, and although somewhat advanced in years, can hold my own in the former trade with any one, and the confidence my patrons have in me is a sufficient guarantee of my status as a jeweler. In conclusion I will state, should this meet the eye of Mr. Davidson, and should he feel inclined to answer this, in order to draw out another reply from me, the gentleman can rest assured that I will no more pay attention to his misrepresentations, as I feel myself far above Mr. Davidson, either as a citizen or in business circles, and in all other respects, and as for integrity, I can refer the public to the commercial world, with pride, which I challenge Mr. Davidson to do.

J. FREDRICK.

Let the Public Judge.

EDITOR GAZETTE: I have naturally objected to Mr. F. Frederick's unflattering practice of misrepresenting the capacity of my establishment in the jewelry and watchmaking line. In return Mr. F. makes an exhibition of anger and forgetfulness which ought to be no more by your readers as a natural curiosity. Mr. F. challenges me to prove that he has ever failed to give satisfaction. I do not desire to prove it. I know better, indeed, since Mr. F. has had all his intricate watchwork done in my store since January 18th, 1879. The old gentleman has forgotten where his work was done. I help his memory, therefore, by citing these charges made against Mr. Frederick on my watchmaker's books for watchwork, all of which he duly paid. From January, 1878, to January, 1879, $215 25. The books to that effect are open for inspection for anyone wishing to see them. When my friend Mr. F. says that the work was not done in my shop, merely that I did not work and hand carved certificate, I am a jeweler and always keep a first-class watchmaker employed. Mr. Frederick is neither and gets violent as though I were to blame. Mr. F. is anxious to call me a liar. After showing the above figures I might perhaps resort to kind. If, however, the people will read these figures they will know how Mr. F. has been able to render satisfaction on their watchwork, and also see that it is entirely unnecessary for me to call the late gentleman any names.

S. N. DAVIDSON.

RENO, Feb. 12th, 1879.

True as Steel.

Lodi, Cal., Jan. 10th, 1879.

HALL'S SAFE AND LOCK CO., San Francisco, Cal.—GENTS—One night last week, (Dec. 30, 1878), some cracksmen broke into my store for the purpose of robbing my Hall's Patent Fire and Burglar-proof safe, purchased of you some time since. They were, however, apparently satisfied to give it up as a bad job. After tampering with the lock, which they found impossible to pick, their efforts were directed against the burglar-proof box compartment, which they doubtless knew contained money and valuables. A piece of iron about as large as my hand was first cut out from one side of the safe; drills were then used to test the question whether or not the box could be drilled and powder injected. Their drills failed to make any impression whatever upon the steel box, and these worthies were forced to abandon their undertaking. From the artistic manner in which these rascals attacked my safe, I am satisfied that they were professional cracksmen who understand their business.

Your safe proved itself to be what you claim it to be: fire and burglar proof. I cordially commend your manufacture of safe to public favor. Yours, very truly,

E. O. IVORY.

A Card to the Public.

All those who think the rumor spread by a certain jeweler in town true, that I cannot repair watches and jewelry of all grades, will find their mistake by giving me a trial. The person who circulated the above cannot do work himself and in order not to allow his neighbor to live, says it cannot be done in Reno, thereby misleading the public and compelling them to send work to larger cities. Hence, when he has some difficult work to perform, he sends it to my store to be done, says the public will no longer allow themselves to be misled, but will call at my store with the work other jeweler cannot do, and be satisfied.

S. N. DAVIDSON.

A Card to the Public.

A Raphael informs his patrons and the general public that he is about to visit San Francisco to secure for his spring trade, the largest and finest stock of goods suitable for gentlemen's clothing, that has ever been brought to Reno. He also takes this occasion to thank his customers for their generous patronage, and to inform them that he is going to three years, and provision, with increased accommodations and excellent attention to business, to reach the same place, the same day, as he has engaged in the past.

Talk is Cheap.

And so are fine clothing, boots, shoes, hats and gentlemen's and boys' fine furnishing goods. If you go to the right place to get them. This is a mighty important point, for some people who assert that they sell cheap do nothing of the kind. I do not boast when I say that I defy competition in price in anything in my line. Besides this I have only one price. I have no preferred customers. Everybody is treated alike at my establishment. My stock is the largest and most complete ever offered in any part of this State. Everything I have is new. No old, musty and out-of-date goods can be found on my shelves. I receive daily by rail and express the latest and best goods, which are obtained at first hand and sold at prices below those now prevailing in New York and Chicago. Let the people come and judge of my prices and examine my stock before going into those humbugging, cheap-john shops, in which they dream into the air of the customer that they sell at cost, and even below cost. Anybody with common sense must know that they lie. No storekeeper sells goods for the fun of the thing. I make a profit on everything I sell, as every honest merchant does, and don't print foolish falsehoods in the vain hope of deceiving the public. One must make a profit to live. I particularly call attention to my full stock of jewelry, such as is kept nowhere else in Reno. This class of goods form one of my specialties. Remember the place. The White House, No. 19, Commercial Row. Orders from the country promptly attended to.

L. J. SHAWMAN, White House, Reno.

Let It Concern All.

Who is there that can say "I am under obligations to no one?" The young man just entering business life owes to the home in which he was nurtured and educated, to the parents who have supported him, and to the younger members of the family who have been denied luxuries to make his advancement sure. At middle age the necessity for insuring life increases with his responsibility. If in health, his first duty should be to attend to it. Unhealthy lives are not insurable. Insure while you are in an insurable condition. Every day brings with it the possibility of some cause which will forever bar insurance. Let not the father of a family suffer the opportunity to pass without embracing it. He owes it to his life, to his children and to the State. To become a member of the Sonoma and Marin Mutual Beneficial Association of Petaluma costs from $5 to $10, according to age. Members of the Reno Agency have already been paid about $10,000 in benefits. Over $500,000 have been paid in benefits since its organization in 1868. B. B. BAUM, Agent. Office with Dr. Snow, International Hotel.

The scarcity of diamonds, gold and silver, and the difficulties met with in securing them, is a sure indication of their real value. It is with a valuable medicine. Dr. Aug. Kaiser's celebrated German Pulmonic Balm, through the jealousy of rivals, has met with the most bitter opposition, and apparently almost insurmountable obstacles have been thrown in its way; but its opponents might as well try to change the course of the sun, sweep back the ocean with a broom, or put out a prairie fire with a tear. For the cure of Throat and Lung diseases, such as Coughs, Colds, Consumption and Bronchial Affections it is unequalled. Its cures are truly magical. Ask your druggist, Chemist or Apothecary for it. The genuine bears the Prussian Coat of Arms, the fac-simile signature of Dr. Aug. Kaiser, and has his name blown on every 75-cent bottle. Trial bottle, 25 cents. Sent free.

To the Public.

I challenge any one to prove that I have ever failed to give satisfaction. My work speaks for itself and my reputation is too well established to be injured by any slurs gratuitously spread by a business rival. I have said and still maintain that S. N. Davidson is no watchmaker. I do not get my fine jewelry work done in San Francisco, but never yet have failed to give satisfaction both in price and workmanship, and the work is better than can be done in Reno. I can prove that on more than one occasion I have had jobs brought to my store to be remade that have been botched by S. N. Davidson. And I further state that if he says that he ever did a dollar's work for me he is a liar.

THE CHANGES OF TIME.

It is astonishing, the change of sentiment which the Christian religion has made in the minds of its followers in regard to that most horrible and disgusting instrument of torture—the cross. The galleys and gibbets are now and artistic institutions compared to it. It was then the gibbet or the rack. Its victims were fastened to it by means of large nails driven through the nerves, flesh, bone and sinew of the hands and feet—the most sensitive organs of the human frame—tearing their rude way under the blows of the hammer. To realize the agony of such a position wear tight boots for a day and then imagine your weight hanging on the bruised and torn nerves of the hands and feet. The tortures endured while dying slowly from pain and exposure must have been unspeakable, and the pangs of bodily pain were only part of the punishment. The most public places were chosen for the cruel execution and no ceremony or privacy was used. It seems the reverse was the case. The hoodlum crowds were encouraged to hang around the scene, tormenting, upbraiding and maltreating the criminals. The blood-stained faces and hands, the dirty feet and unkempt hair, the ugly mug, the clothed blood oozing out of unhealed wounds, the piteous cries and prayers for death, the moans of widowed women and orphaned children at the foot of the cross all furnished food for sport to the heartless spectators. The very name of this machine must have been loathsome to those familiar with its fearful associations. The morbid repugnance of this generation to the rope and all of its accessories surrounded as it is with all the dignity of law is a hint of the feeling the cross would inspire nowadays. Notwithstanding all the disagreeable surroundings the cross has been satisfied by the sacrifice made upon it and has been adopted as a symbol of the devotion and earnestness of Jesus Christ. What nations bow down and worship it as the incarnation of the idea of christianity. Ladies wear it on their necks and bosoms as an ornament, without associating it with any of its real significance. The cross of the nineteenth century is a very different matter from that of the first.

AN EVENTFUL CAREER.

Ex-governor Hartman, of Pennsylvania, has had an unusual career as a politician. He was elected to the gubernatorial seat by a scratch, by the Republican party, with a large part of which he was intensely unpopular. Before his term expired, however, he completely turned the tide, and became as great a favorite as he was hateful before. At Cincinnati he received quite a respectable vote for the presidential candidacy. Since that time he has been appointed postmaster at Philadelphia, and is now talked of for sheriff of the county. That office will render him independent of politics for life. The enormous fees of such offices ought to attract better men than have sought them heretofore. A few such candidates as Gov. Hartman would create a new fashion among statesmen, and the fat offices might be kept as a reward for the worthy, instead of being captured by the muldoons, the buffoons, and the ringleaders.

EDITORIAL NOTES.

The Highland ditch heads near the bridge between Reno and Verdi at the foot of the black basalt bluff above the wagon road. It is built two-thirds of the way to Reno at a uniform grade which strikes above the top of the eminence and would give abundant fall to send water all over town, and in case of one good fire would be worth more to Reno than all the money it would take to bring it in. There is plenty of good land to use up all the surplus water at a big price. The enterprise is in the hands of some of our best men who, we believe, intend to push it to completion this year. Let everybody help a little if he can.

In Baltimore the other day, counsel objected to a witness because he was an infidel. He also objected to the judge examining witnesses, on the ground that his testimony would be incomplete without all other cases. It seems a fairer case than an infidel in "my Maryland."

W. R. Morrison, of Illinois, is talked of for the speakership. If we must have a Bourbon, give us Morrison instead of Randall.

Robbing a Printer.

[Eureka Leader.]

The room of a wealthy printer was entered by a bold burglar recently and plundered of its contents, or rather the contents of the sleeping compositor's pockets. The thief was well rewarded for his trouble, securing a heavy booty, including cash to the amount of $125, a pocket knife valued at fifty cents, a bunch of keys, and a safe chip. The money is the entire savings of two years' steady work, and its loss totally bankrupted the unfortunate man; the keys he can spare, as he has neither trunk nor valet, and the knife was a gift, but the safe chip was a memento of many investments that have absorbed the greater portion of his earnings. While the craft sympathized with their comrade, they temper their pity with sarcastic reflections on his imprudence in carrying so much wealth about his person.

From Canada.

OTTAWA, Feb. 28.—The duties on tea and molasses are to be reduced, and the finance minister says that if the finances will permit it tea and coffee will be placed on the free list. To encourage trade with Japan the duty on tea will be made at valorem.

The house of commons, after discussion, voted down a resolution declaring the necessity of strict and uniform observance of the Lord's day in all departments of the public service, and that all postmasters be permitted to close their offices during the whole of the Sabbath day.

Corbin Comes to Contest the Senatorial Seat.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—In the senate a communication from David T. Corbin, contestant for the seat from South Carolina, was read and laid on the table. Corbin states that he has been before the senate for two years, actively asserting his rights, having been duly elected, and the committee on privileges and elections so reported. However, he now withdraws from the contest.

God will not force the truth into a soul. He puts the tree of life before a man, and the beautiful fruit hangs all golden before him; but man can take or let it alone.

THOUGHTS.

Honest men's words are as good as their bonds.

He hath lived full that knows not how to die.

One is gentle when one is strong—yet in a resolution.

Friendship is the most sacred of all moral bonds.

A detractor is his own foe and the world's enemy.

One should seek for others the happiness one desires for one's self.

Woe to them who give scant measure and exact full measures from others.

Not till the external, sensitive chords of man are struck do the inner ones sound after them.

O, God, show compassion on the wicked. The virtuous have already been blessed by Thee in being virtuous.

If God has taught us all truth in teaching us to love, then he has given us an interpretation of our whole duty in our households.

A Man who Knows How to Eat.

[Washington Capital.]

We were enjoying a blue-grass mutton chop at this famous restaurant not long since, when we were attracted by a vigorous, hearty old party, who ate his chop with a relish and an appetite that was really remarkable. Entering into conversation, we learned that this honorable gentleman had learned the art of how to eat. He said he had discovered the secret of healthy eating some thirty years ago, and in that time had outlived all his companions of the hotel. "Yes," he said, "I have outlived all my companions. Most of them were younger than myself, and gave promise of a much longer life. Their style of living ruined them. The bill of fare was large and generous. They paid for what was in it, why not eat? They began with soup and ended with nuts and raisins. Their diet palmed on their palate. Capriciousness of liquor were enjoyed. They lived a fast life, and had a fast life's reward. My style of living is entirely different. I regarded the hotel as my home, where I was to live for years. The spread was sufficient, but my living was simple. I change my soup daily. I confine myself to one kind of meat, and change it every day. The dessert, varied enough to give me seven new courses a week. Sometimes I had coffee, sometimes tea, sometimes milk, and then occasionally water. The hotel's physician made me a friendly call occasionally; I have not sent for him in twenty-five years. I have seen many men eat themselves out of house and home. I have followed many an associate to the grave who died from over-eating and a bad digestion. I am here hale and hearty, with a decade longer to live."

Where the Shoe Pinches.

New York, Feb. 28.—Yesterday's meeting of the chamber of commerce was chiefly engineered by merchants in the Chinese trade, touching whose disinterestedness the following figures are thought to have significance: Our exports of cotton goods, which have gained tenfold since 1873, have found their largest markets in China, South America, and Mexico. Our shipments to China are nearly three-fold the amount in 1877, and forming about one-quarter of our entire export. Exports of last year, compared with the previous year, show a great increase. Exports to British North America and Haiti show a similar increase. The total export of cottons from New York City were $4,780,350 yards, being nearly 70 per cent. of the whole trade.

After March Fourth.

[Washington Letter to Baltimore Sun-Dem.]

After the 4th of March the well-disciplined and able band of Republicans in the senate, veterans of legislative training and in parliamentary knowledge, led by such members as Edmunds, Conkling, Blaine and others, will be absorbed of all responsibility for legislation. They become the fault finders, as the Democrats have been for so many years, and that they will make it warm for the Democratic majority, none can doubt. The Democrats have possession of the house for four years, and they have a great deal to learn yet, for they are constantly doing foolish things.

Matters at Mare Island.

VALLEJO, Feb. 28.—The Jamestown was turned over to the naval authorities at Mare Island at noon today. Her ward-room and staterooms property belonging to San Francisco were sold yesterday at private sale to Hamell & Edgar, a Vallejo firm. A board of survey was held on the man-of-war Alert on Wednesday, and some slight repairs found to be necessary. Yesterday she was inspected by a board composed of Commodore Spriggs and Lieutenants Hunter and Christopher.

There was a very amicable suit for breach of promise decided in a London court recently. The defendant was a confectioner, addicted to drink, and, according to the evidence of the defendant's brother, acted as "sweet-heart and nurse" for him. She courted him and secured an engagement, but he concluded they had better not be married, and agreed that $500 would be a fair indemnity for her loss. Damages were therefore assessed at that amount with his consent.

While the westbound overland train was at Lathrop on Thursday a carriage drove up containing four men, one of whom was found to be dying. The party had left Stockton a few minutes before to go to Grayson, to play for a dance. The young man in question was taken with an epileptic fit and died before he could be gotten out of his seat.

A Maine editor thus distinguishes between different sorts of patriotism: "Some esteem it sweet to die for one's country; others regard it sweeter to live for one's country, and yet others hold it sweeter to live on one's country."

In the matter of the Buller-Corbin contest it is understood that Matthews voted with the Democrats because of his conviction that it would be inexpedient to provoke a contest which would probably end in expelling Kellogg the next session, as well as in unseating Corbin again, if he should become the victor in the present contest. Burnside is understood to have been influenced to withhold his vote for the same reason.

The Veto Foreshadowed.

WASHINGTON, Feb. 28.—The cabinet session today was mainly devoted to a discussion of the Chinese question. There is no doubt that the views of President are strongly to the effect that absolute necessity exists that he should veto the bill. In taking this ground, it is also said, upon excellent authority, the President is sustained.

The San Francisco Post says: "The Montreal Witness issues a fulmination against the anti-Chinese bill. We would respectfully suggest that our Canadian neighbors finish fighting the battle of the Boynes before they bother themselves about our domestic affairs."

Apples.

John Bost, of Nevada city California, is in town making arrangements about his orchard crop. Mr. Bost has a splendid orchard, and is now preparing for the sale of its product. His orchard is one of the finest in the foothills of California, and its fruit cannot be excelled. He will deliver fruit in Reno at the lowest rates possible.

A New Feature.

L. S. Burchard, of the Journal, is now entertaining the readers of that paper with a series of articles on what he knows about farming. The subject is one on which the gentleman is well posted (theoretically) and no doubt the farmers in the Washoe valley will receive many valuable suggestions from their personal. Now is the time to make up clubs.

Sale.

Mrs. Williams, a colored woman, well known in Reno, committed suicide by shooting herself through the head with a pistol. A short time ago she was robbed of a lot of money, jewelry and other valuables by a colored man who was boarding at her house, and this is supposed to be the cause of the rash act.

Race Ball.

A matched game of base ball will be played at the grounds back of the seminary to-morrow at 1 o'clock. The Men's will play against a picked nine of the men's club. Both sides have been practicing all week, and the probabilities are that it will be a closely contested game.

Sound Over.

Sam Lee, the embalming Chinaman, brought from California on the governor's requisition, was to-day bound over in the sum of $5000.

For Sale.

In the Reno Evening, Reno, Nev., 190,000 First and Second Years. I will sell hereafter by the Standard method, at the Standard price, the Standard price.

The Ball at Huffakers.

The ball at Huffakers last night was a jolly affair at all accounts, and was fruitful of incidents worthy of mention. Franktown, Washoe City and Reno were represented, while the beaux and belles of that section were out in force, decked in pull-backs, clawhammers, ribbons etc. Joy was unconfined, and the ball rolled merrily from 9 in the evening till 4 o'clock in the morning.

The occasion was productive of the usual number of funny incidents. The Journal's local, in the excitement of the general festivity, put salt in his coffee instead of sugar. He has been in a pickle ever since. A wagon containing a party of prospective merry-makers broke down on the way, and the gallants got warmed up walking before they got to the hall. Dr. Hoggan's expectations were spoiled and his stomach disappointed in a sad way. A young man asked him out to take "sunthis," but on reaching the "coache" it was found that somebody had been there before them, consequently the doctor missed the expected draught.

All those who went had a splendid time.

Life.

The GAZETTE idealist, who has an eye to trivialities as well as momentousness, has lost all faith in humanity. Bolting into the reporter's room this morning, his eyes aflame and his manner betokening strong disgust and bitterness, he burst forth as follows:

"Life! What is it? A theme for poets and preachers; an empty nothing, floating through realms of boundless space. Three little children sat today in a doorway on Virginia street. Two boys and a little girl. They were crunching an antiquated cocoon, as hard and dry and tough as the heart of a miser. It seemed to me a perfect representation of this thing, thought or theory that you call life. Existence is all well enough, but 'life,' bah!"

His feelings overcame him, and he bounced out as he had bounced in. The reporter subsequently learned that Geo. Becker's accommodating clerk had failed this morning to recognize the moralistic manipulator while on his habitual rounds.

A Rich Discovery.

Messrs. Frecky, Luke and Fox have discovered a very rich ledge of gold and silver bearing quartz about a mile and a quarter north of Reno. The discovery was made by Mr. Frecky, the latter part of last week. Assays have been made, and the results are very flattering, although it cannot be definitely determined till an assay can be made. It is certain, however, that it will go up in the hundreds. They have only sunk about seven feet on the ledge, and the rock grows richer as they go down on it. If the rock is as rich as the discoverers claim, it will develop a second Comstock.

Real Estate Transfer.

The following transfers of real estate have been recorded since Feb. 15th: Peter Robinson to Jos. Wells; 80 acres of land in section 10, township 19 north, range 13 east, for the consideration of $600. W. J. Marsh to Isaac Weston; lots 10, 11 and 12 in Marsh's Addition. Price, $600. F. D. Stadtmuller to Evans brothers; the Reno Water Works, for the sum of $15,000.

Four by Six.

The Nevada City, Cal., Transcript, four by six, publishes a card at the head of its local page, stating that it "may be found on file at Geo. P. Rowell & Co's. Advertising Agency, etc." Well, yes; it may be found perhaps, but searching for a needle in a haystack would be preferable.

Sent Below.

J. T. Fitzgerald was yesterday examined before Judge King, and adjudged insane. He was committed to the insane asylum at Stockton. Last night he was taken below by T. K. Hymers, who was deputized by Sheriff Walker for that purpose.

Seeds.

William Pinniger has just received a large and well selected stock of fresh field, farm and garden seeds. Some of these seeds are shipped to Mr. Pinniger direct from Europe, and are of the choicest varieties. Parties who desire to beautify their homes should give Mr. P. a call.

The Kennel.

The Skags says Joe Cowan, a saloon keeper, is about to leave Virginia on account of business depression, and goes on to say it regrets his departure. Very likely Plant's patronage was the principal cause of his removal.

The Pay Car.

The Central Pacific pay car passed through last night, going east. The paymaster will go directly through to Ogden, and will not pay the employees on this end of the road until his return from the east.

More Stamps.

Letters addressed to the following named persons are held at the post-office in default of postage: Geo. Aldrich, Lincoln, Cal.; Ja. Morgan, Truckee, Cal.; Myron H. Goodwin, Live Oak Butte, Yuba Co., Cal.

Returned.

"Bees" Myers, the colored man who was committed to the insane asylum last October returned to Reno this morning.

Water Main Burst.

A water main on West street burst this morning, flooding all the streets in the vicinity. The break was quickly repaired, however.

THE SELF-GOVERNED MAN.

Synopsis of a Sermon to Young Men.

[BY REV. MR. RAYMOND.]

"He that ruleth his spirit is better than he that taketh a city." Proverbs, xiv, 29. Solomon knew full well the weight of these words, surrounded as he was, by all the wealth of an oriental monarch, and beset at every turn with all the delicacies that pamper the appetites of a sensuous man. He knew that a warrior loaded with the spoils of victory and hailed as a hero, was nothing compared to the humble mendicant who had his spirit under subjection. He was aware that although he ruled the greatest kingdom on earth, in wealth, the man who had conquered his spirits was more to be praised, for the spirit of self, the propensities of the body, are dominions which are almost unconquerable within themselves. But when once conquered, man is raised above the contaminating influences of vice and sin.

THE PRINCIPLE OF INDIVIDUALISM.

Men are separate and distinct beings. In feelings, in thoughts, in emotions, each man is alone. We, to a very great extent, make ourselves in this life. Individualism is a principle which pervades all nature. The tiny spear of grass which springs from the mother earth stands alone, draws its nourishment from the soil, and performs its own part in making up the meadow or lawn. The sparkling dew drops, just kissed by the morning sun, are an individuality. The myriads of stars which sparkle as electric candles in the dome of heaven are composed of individual orbs. It is thus with the human race. Each being is placed here to perform his part in the great drama of life. It rests wholly with him whether he will play it manfully and well, or stand as a mere cringing pygmy, while the rush and jar goes on around him. He is the architect of his future destiny. Will he grow to his full height morally, intellectually, and physically, or will he become a social dwarf? The power lies within him to approximate to the great ideal, or degenerate into the groveling dolt. Either course will bring a reward, but what reward will be the greater? Whatsoever a man soweth, that shall he also reap.

When we behold a man of sterling, industrious habits playing his part in life with vigor—whether he wields the pen at the desk, or the sledge at the anvil, whether he be dressed according to the most approved fashion of the day, or in the brownest homespun—we bow in respectful deference before him. Self-government is the exercise of moral power, and implies a correct conception of life. We must ascertain for what purpose we were put into this world. Now is the time to act, when we are in the strength of early manhood—an aim we must have if we would make life a success. There are young men who walk the streets of our town to-day, who have no real purpose in life.

but are constantly looking for "something to turn up." But looking will accomplish nothing. Would we cultivate a field, we must put in the plow with our hands and turn the soil up and over. We might look at it till doomsday and the field would never cultivate itself. Would we have the times better we must make them better, and not allow the times to make us. The purpose that will win. The men of one idea in this day and age are the men whose influence will be felt so "long as the earth bears a plant or the sea rolls a wave." Especially is it the duty of the young men to stand forth with a high and noble purpose when our country is lifting its forty million voices for reform and better men in every calling and vocation. Our day will not be one of fencibles; either enlist in the ranks of progress or be thrust out and take what comes. But to be men in the highest and best sense, certain requirements are to be fulfilled.

LET US TAKE CARE OF OUR BODIES.

The health of the physical organization is a prerogative not to be despised, and upon that must we depend to a very great extent to carry forward the aims and purposes of existence. But physical power does not stand above the mental and moral powers. On the contrary, it is subordinate to them. The muscles are the settings of the brain—what the settings are to the jewel the muscles are to the brain. Destroy the jewel and the settings are worthless—rob a man of the powers of brain and he is a man no more. He may have the strength of a Hercules, but it is of no service to him. The physical organization is very necessary for our comfort and happiness but it does not take the place of the other constituent elements of manhood.

THE SECOND IS BRAIN OR MIND CULTURE.

To be men we must be students. Not because we are going to be ministers, or physicians, or lawyers, but because we are going to be men. There is scarcely any excuse for a man being ignorant in this day of public schools. Very little excuse for being ignorant of the laws of the land, and certainly no excuse for being ignorant of the grandest book on earth—the Bible. A book that reveals the most perfect specimen of manhood the world has ever seen, deserving of our closest attention. But after the physical and intellectual culture have been considered, the greatest yet remains, viz: HEART CULTURE.

THE BRAIN, WHICH IS THE SEAT OF THE MIND, CANNOT GET ALONG WITHOUT THE BODY. THE BODY IS USELESS WITHOUT THE BRAIN, AND BOTH ARE USELESS WITHOUT THE HEART. LET US THEN EDUCATE OUR physical organisms for our brains, our brains for our hearts, our hearts for our humanity. We have spiritual natures which must be cultivated, and we ask you, and indeed plead with you, to accept of the religion of Jesus Christ, the young man's friend. It is a religion that will enable you to develop the great possibilities which lie within yourselves; it is a religion that will put a man in possession of himself, and fit him for honor and immortality.

JOTTINGS.

—What they all say—it's dull.

—The Truckee is like stocks—down.

—Judge King has gone to Carson.

—E. Chilovich, proprietor of the Wine House, is in town.

—Job work is executed at this office at ruinous figures.

—L. D. Wickes, minister plenipotentiary at Bronco, is in town to-day.

—Workmen are to-day engaged repairing the water mine on Commercial row.

—Those pneumatic bells will be in position at the Wine House to-night. Call and ring.

—The Judge continues to turn over in his mind the evidence in the case of Elliott vs. Elliott.

—Attention is called to the advertisement of the Wine House, which appears in to-day's GAZETTE.

—There is a very industrious lot of fishermen in Reno, but they never catch anything—but cold.

—At C. J. Brookings can be seen a fine selection of flower plants from the Arlington Avenue nurseries.

—Osborn & Shoemaker have just received from the East a number of ladies' floral sets and lawn mowers.

—Messrs. Crews & Hledge have put up some nice signs in front of the Opera—signs of the good cheer kept there.

—C. Buckley, on Commercial row, to-day received a large invoice of apples from Wm. George, at Grass Valley, California.

—The suit of Hill & Oakes vs. A. Jose was the attraction at the justice court yesterday. The jury gave a verdict for defendant.

—Mr. Bechtel and August Schaefer, who have been on a visit to Nevada City, Cal., for several days past, returned to Reno this morning.

—Gambling hereabouts is confined principally to the Pute mahalas, which play poker with an earnestness and steadiness truly commendable.

—It has been colder to-day than for several days past, and the bibulous Renosites have gone back on their sudden conversion to lemonade. They take it straight now.

—The case of Merrill vs. Lamb was argued yesterday in the district court and taken under advisement by Judge King. The court then adjourned until the 14th inst.

—The ball at Huffakers' last night was a very enjoyable affair. About twenty persons were present from Reno, and did their share of shaking the "light fantastic."

—There will be divine services at the Methodist Episcopal church to-morrow at 11 A. M. and 7 P. M., Rev. C. McKelvey, officiating. Seats free; all are invited. Sabbath-school at 1:30 P. M.

—Mr. Dahms will deliver a lecture at the Congregational church to-morrow evening on temperance. Subject: "Our wasted resources. Those interested in 'monopolies' and kindred topics are invited."

—The cupola of the new Catholic college is looking up. It is thought the building will be ready for occupancy about the 1st of April. When completed it will be one of the finest buildings in the state.

To the Public.

The undersigned would respectfully inform the public that they have entered into a partnership for carrying on the MERCHANT TAILORS' business on Virginia street, in the house formerly used as the Justice office.
